

Where We Work Regionally

Since establishing our Network in 1980, Fahe has grown to include 50+ Members serving central Appalachia and Appalachian Alabama.

Members lead collaboratively and are bringing solutions to their communities by leveraging a variety of organizational forms, national connections, and their own place-based expertise. As a purpose-oriented Network Fahe scales influence and increases capacity in underserved areas.

